3. Listen to and apply all critiques received during class and rehearsals.
4. Support my teammates (everyone competing from Pas de Deux Dance Studio).
5. Display good sportsmanship at all times.
 - a. Try my hardest.
 - b. Be respectful of my competitors, my teammates, and myself.

As the PARENT(S) of a dancer competing with Pas de Deux Dance Studio, I agree to:

1. Put the competition and recital dates on the calendar immediately so there won't be conflicts.
2. Enable my dancer to practice at home. This includes giving them time to practice, and having their performance music in a format they can access for ALL of their dances.
3. Make sure my dancer is at class EVERY week except if ill. In the case of illness (dancer or family member), I will make sure my dancer is able to take class via Zoom if offered.
4. Keep my dancer's schedule free for extra rehearsal days in March (April competition) or May (May competition) until the rehearsal schedule is finalized.
5. Attend any mandatory competition meetings (in person or via Zoom).
6. Have my dancer at the competition venue on time with hair and makeup done.
7. Support the studio by attending the competition for my dancer's routine and others from the studio.
8. Display good sportsmanship at all times, including being respectful of all dancers, teachers, judges and staff at the competition, and accepting the judges' decisions.

I understand that my dancer may be required to take additional lessons (at standard private lesson rates) if she/he does not know the dances or misses too many rehearsals. In extreme cases, my dancer may be pulled out of the competition (with no refunds).

SOLO, DUO and TRIO dancers and parents also agree to:

1. Memorize their choreography immediately after learning it so it will not need to be retaught.
2. Schedule extra private lessons as needed.
3. Make all of the group dances top priority. Solo, duo and trio dancers are required to compete any of their normal class dances that are going to competition.

I understand that the solo, duo or trio will be pulled from the competition (with no refund) if any of the group dances begin to suffer, or are not being made a priority.
